Steel Talks Look Promising

Labor Contract Negotiations Begin

PITTSBURGH (AP) — An unprecedented era of harmony hung over opening steel labor contract negotiations today with both the industry and union bent on achieving the quick settlement asked by President Kennedy.

Selection of Valentine's Day for the bargaining start was described as strictly coincidental. But it fit in with the sweetness-and-light approach the negotiators seem to have adopted in place of their knock-down battling stance in prior years.

Today's initial talks were expected to be mainly exploratory, clearing the way for private meetings between President David J. McDonald of the United Steelworkers Union and R. Conrad Cooper, chief negotiator for U.S. Steel Corp. and the industry.

With the bargaining getting under way 4½ months ahead of the June 30 expiration of the current contract, nobody has formally stated a target date for a new agreement, but it is generally believed to be in early March.

Kennedy has said the "earlier the better" will suit him for a new steel contract—thereby avoiding the threat of a midyear strike, disruptive effects of a steel inventory buildup and a consequent economic slowdown later on.

The talks today brought union bargaining teams into separate sessions with representatives of the 11 major steel companies.

McDonald was expected to look in on the U.S. Steel meeting, where Cooper also may show up, but the two key figures put off until at least Thursday a start of

Don Gosney Begins New Board Term

Don R. Gosney of Columbiana, a Democrat, received the oath of office Tuesday from Secretary of State Ted W. Brown to begin a new four-year term on the County Election Board March 1.

Atty. James L. McSweeney of Wellsville, Republican, was prevented by illness from making the trip to Canton, where the secretary of state set up a "traveling office" to interview new board members.

Gosney received his certificate of appointment from Brown, then filed it with Clerk of Courts Carl L. Stacey at Lisbon, who also administered an oath to him. Gosney obtained McSweeney's certificate of appointment from Brown and turned it over to Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk of the board. McSweeney is expected to take the oath of office later.

Law requires the Election Board to reorganize within five days after March 1, electing a chairman and a clerk. No date has been set. Carl L. Stacey of Columbiana, Democrat, is the chairman. O'Hanlon, of East Liverpool, is a Republican. The fourth member of the board is Atty. Charles A. Pike of Lisbon, Republican. Stacey and Pike are hold-overs.

Gosney and McSweeney recently were recommended for reappointment by the county executive committees of their respective parties.

Damage Hits $5 Million Mark

Floods Continue In Southeast Idaho

By The Associated Press
Southeastern Idaho braced for more flooding today as damage estimates reached the $5-million mark. Thousands were homeless. Southern California cleaned up after a devastating six-day rain-storm which left a sea of mud and debris, property damage estimated by officials at nearly $1.5 million and 26 storm-related deaths.

A body of water 16 miles long and two miles wide—but shallow—was moving slowly toward Blackfoot, Idaho. This was melted snow, augmented by continued rains.

Water was five feet deep in parts of Pocatello, a city of 27,000 in southeastern Idaho.

In northern Nevada, U.S. Highway 40 was washed out near Elko. Tracks of the Western Pacific railroad were flooded.

At Battle Mountain, Nev. Southern Pacific Railroad officials refused permission to dynamite the line's tracks, claiming that it was U.S. 40 that was backing up Reese River flood waters. Some citizens dynamited the tracks anyway.

Objections To Rt. 518 Project Aired

LISBON — Thirty-five persons attended the public hearing Tuesday morning in Village Hall on a proposal to improve Rt. 518 from Gavers east 1.92 miles.

William McKenna, Division 11 deputy director, was in charge of a question and answer program. The improvement is estimated to cost $300,000 and will include the replacement of two one-way bridges and widening, grading and paving the section.

Most of the objections raised at the meeting regarded the section which the state proposes to improve. Many of those attending felt other segments of the road were in worse condition and should have priority in an improvement program.

Some persons complained also that the project would not eliminate any of the dangerous curves. Among those who felt other sections of the route should be improved first were Rev. Frank Hare who pointed out that there had been few accidents at either of the bridges whereas many mishaps had occurred on other segments.

Jud English, assistant manager of the East Liverpool Auto Club, said he favored the replacement of the two bridges. Declaring that any improvement to the route would benefit the county, he said perhaps the highway department would effect other improvements after the current project was completed.

Dems Barely Hold Michigan

Ryan Edges Waldron For State Senator

DETROIT (AP) — Democratic State Sen. Harold M. Ryan barely squeaked through to victory in a special election in Michigan's 14th Congressional District.

So thin was Ryan's margin in a district which Democrats have called their own for the better part of a quarter century that the loser, Republican Robert E. Waldron, also a state legislator, was considering a demand for a recount.

The unofficial tabulation gave labor-backed Ryan a margin of 764 votes among nearly 60,000 cast. Ryan had 30,366, Waldron 29,602.

Waldron said the unofficial result indicated victory for neither Ryan nor himself. He said he would decide on a recount request after an official canvass of the vote Thursday.

Waldron said the result failed

200 Attend Urban-Farm Program

"For Such A Time As This" was the topic of the talk given by Tennyson Guyer, lecturer and humorist, when 200 members of the Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs and the Chamber of Commerce met Tuesday noon at the Memorial Building for the annual Urban-Farm Day program.

Guyer stressed the fact that people today need more relaxation and discipline in their lives today. He said that since Khrushchev does not recognize the press, all news concerning him should be put in the back of newspapers.

A former state senator from Hardin County, Guyer is known as "Ohio's Ambassador of Good Will."

Lloyd Gordon presided at the meeting.

Tom Mercer and E. U. Whitacre were in charge of the arrangements, and Whitacre introduced the speaker.

The Rotary Club was the host club.

Bad Weather Halts Glenn's Orbit Attempt

Launching Try Rescheduled For Thursday Morning

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — A new storm in the western Atlantic today threatened to force a ninth postponement of the orbital flight of astronaut John H. Glenn Jr., now very tentatively set for Thursday morning.

Glenn, Marine lieutenant colonel, had hoped to get off on his long-delayed triple whirl about the world this morning, but a heavy overcast drifting over the boiling Atlantic forced Project Mercury officials to put it off until 7:30 a.m., Eastern Standard Time, Thursday, at the earliest.

A weather advisory issued shortly before 10 a.m. today by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration made it highly uncertain that the historic flight would go Thursday. It was being freely predicted here that it would probably go over until Friday at the earliest.

Officials won't push the button for Glenn's Atlas to rise skyward until assured that weather conditions in the recovery areas won't be too foul. Otherwise there would be danger that the astronaut and his data-filled capsule would be lost in rough seas.

The NASA weather advisory today said:

"The intense low pressure trough located just east of Bermuda is still active.

"A new storm center is moving off Cape Hatteras, N.C., this morning, and is forecast to be near Bermuda Thursday morning, with strong winds and rough seas covering much of the area to the east and west of Bermuda."

If Glenn completed only one orbit he probably would be brought down about 500 miles east of Bermuda. After two orbits the plans are for him to alight about 500 miles south of Bermuda, and after three orbits, about 800 miles

Board Lets May Ballots Contract

One of 3 Commissioner Candidates Withdraws

The Republican field for a lone nomination as county commissioner was cut to three Tuesday afternoon when the Columbiana County Election Board approved a withdrawal request from Ernest A. Lowe of East Liverpool.

Lowe told the board in a brief letter he was quitting the race "because of circumstances beyond my control."

His action leaves in the field William H. Weir of Salem, operator of Weir's wallpaper and paint store, and two East Liverpool men, Samuel B. Webber, a former councilman, and James W. Boyd, operator of a lumber company.

At the same time, the fields were reduced in both the Democratic and Republican races for state central committee man in the five-county 18th Congressional District.

Robert Bell of Steubenville was left unopposed for GOP state committee man after one of his opponents withdrew and the other was ruled ineligible.

Withdrawal was Harrold Meyers of Barnesville. He sent a letter to the board asking that he be permitted to withdraw and that his name be removed from the ballot.

Acting on a certification from the Belmont County Election Board, the Columbiana County board ruled as ineligible the candidacy of Robert Starks of St. Clairsville, who also had filed for the GOP state committee post.

The Belmont board certified to the board in East Liverpool that Starks failed to comply with the "Corrupt Practices Act" by filing

Powers Submits To Interview

U2 Pilot Being Quizzed In Capitol

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy said today U2 pilot Francis Gary Powers is cooperating more with President Sukarno about Dutch-held West New Guinea today after ducking a fried egg in the first incident of trouble on his visit to Indonesia.

Kennedy opened a news conference with a statement on the case of Powers, who was freed by the Russians Saturday in exchange for U.S. release of Soviet spy Rudolf Abel.

The President declined to say how Powers was brought down while flying a high-altitude U.S. reconnaissance photo plane over Russia on May 1, 1960. He said an answer must await the end of questioning by appropriate government authorities.

In his opening statement, the President said he knew there have been many questions about

Robert 'Egged' At Student Assembly

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — Robert F. Kennedy talked some more with President Sukarno about Dutch-held West New Guinea today after ducking a fried egg in the first incident of trouble on his visit to Indonesia.

After his talk with Sukarno, the U.S. attorney general and his wife started on a three-day tour of Indonesian hinterlands, including the fabled island of Bali, in a Soviet-built Ilyushin transport plane.

Kennedy was egged as he mounted the stage to address a student assembly at the University of Indonesia. The cold fried egg sailed out of the crowd. He ducked and the missile plopped behind him.

Three students grabbed the youthful thrower and hustled him out to police. Later a spokesman said the youth was not a student and had infiltrated into the hall. His identity was not announced.

The brief incident was missed by most of the assemblage and did not appear to bother Kennedy. He displayed anger later, however, when students persisted with questions about what the United States would do if nego-

Ice, Wind Cause Power Disruption

Power lines collapsing under ice and wind disrupted service to many homes in the west side of the city Tuesday night.

Thomas R. Corrigan, distribution line supervisor for the Ohio Edison Co., said some lines fell in the Electric Furnace Co. yard at 11:15 p.m. Power was restored to the west side about an hour later after Ohio Edison troubleshooters mended the break.

Service Director James Feiler reported that all of the city's street lights were out from 10:45 p.m. to 12:14 a.m. due to power failure.

Wind blew down some lines on N. Ellsworth Ave. early this morning, causing a blackout in that area for about two hours. Service was restored before 7 a.m., Corrigan said.

Ohio Bell Telephone Co. officials said their facilities were unaffected by the wind and freezing rain which began early last night.

The mercury was hovering near the freezing mark when it rained, leaving a glaze everywhere. Much of the ice had melted by early morning, however.

Tells Khrushchev Much Clarifying Work Needed

Britain Joins U.S. On Insistence Of Disarmament Talks

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy told Soviet Premier Khrushchev today that "much clarifying work" toward disarmament will have to be completed before a summit meeting is possible.

But Kennedy added in a message to the Soviet leader: "This may be necessary in any case before June 1 when a report is to be filed on the progress achieved."

Kennedy told Khrushchev he does not question the usefulness "or perhaps even the necessity of a meeting of heads of government."

He added: "Indeed, I am quite ready to participate personally at the heads of government level at any stage of the conference when it appears that such participation could positively affect the chances of success."

Kennedy referred to the 18-nation disarmament conference scheduled to open in Geneva on March 14.

The U.S. message was delivered to Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko in Moscow today and the British quickly followed with their own answer to Khrushchev's proposal that a summit session of 18 nations start the disarmament negotiations opening in Geneva March 14.

The British proposal was that a summit meeting be held after some progress has been made at a lower level.

The reply from British Prime Minister Macmillan said further that "meetings at the foreign ministers level would be the best instrument for achieving progress at the opening stages" of the Geneva session.

A Western proposal to start at the foreign ministers level was the trigger for Khrushchev's counter suggestion of a summit meeting.

Kennedy's message said that the question is one of timing. He repeated the U.S.-British proposal that the conference open

Central Chile Hit By Sharp Earthquake

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — A sharp earthquake tumbled some walls in central Chile early today and revived fearful memories of the upheavals that killed several thousand persons in May 1960.

Police said the tremor hit Concepcion, Chile's second city, 360 miles south of Santiago.

Communication lines were broken south of Temuco in the same area. There was no word from such once-stricken southern cities as Valdivia, but the quake was believed to have been strong there also.

There was near panic though no reported casualties in Concepcion, the country's main industrial center. The damage was largely confined to collapse of walls of buildings cracked in 1960.

Hundreds of persons in pajamas and nightgowns ran to city

SAO Launches New Plastic Bomb Attack

ORAN, Algeria (AP)—The Secret Army Organization today staged its biggest plastic bomb attack to date in the Moslem quarter of Oran, touching off angry Moslem demonstrations.

About 40 bombs exploded, starting several fires which firemen brought under control.

There was no immediate word of casualties, although there were unconfirmed reports that some Moslems had been trapped in bomb-wrecked homes.

Riot police and troops sealed off the quarter and hurled concussion and tear gas grenades at the demonstrators.

Several hours after the bombs went off, grenade explosions and shouts of demonstrators could still be heard. But the riot forces were able to keep the angry Moslems out of European quarters of the city.

Moslems streamed into the streets, some of them panicked and ran shouting through the streets.

Demonstrators stoned cars driven by Europeans on the outskirts of the quarter.

Police reported that young Europeans in another part of the city were stoning Moslem cars.

Oran, Algeria's second largest city, is a hotbed of secret army activity. Its 400,000 population is about half European, and the Europeans are overwhelmingly behind the terrorist underground and its campaign to keep Algeria French.

Telephone communication between Algiers and France were cut today by a strike of Europeans which also cut electric power and other services.

CBS Shaken Over Alleged Faking On Golf Show

NEW YORK (AP)—CBS moved fast after a sports columnist asserted that some of the shots shown on that network's Sunday afternoon "This Wonderful World of Golf" were not made by the contestants during the match, but by "ghost" players a day or so later.

The hour-long program showing top golfers competing on courses all over the world with Gene Sarazen as commentator, is not produced by the network, but by an outside packager. When the allegation was made, CBS executives and the packager went into a closed-door huddle. Result is that next Sunday the program will start with an explanation that occasionally the producers have taken "dramatic license to illustrate a shot."

Shaken, Bill MacPhail, head of CBS sports department, explained that a few shots were added later to demonstrate better how champion golfers played a particularly interesting hole.

CBS stirred up a hornet's nest with its "Biography of a Bookie Joint" earlier this season. NBC caused some sharp controversy a couple of weeks back with its strongly editorial "White Paper" on the welfare policies of the New York City of Newburgh. Now CBS will be getting into sensitive areas again—on Washington's Birthday, too—with a "CBS Reports" program on the resurgence of the American conservatives, called "Thunder on the Right," which will include some material on the John Birch Society, Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker and Sen. Barry Goldwater.

DRAWS PRISON TERM
CLEVELAND (AP)—James Townsend, 24, of Cleveland was sentenced Tuesday to 16-50 years in Ohio Penitentiary for kidnapping, robbery and rape.

clear tests, is trying to write an adroit answer rejecting Premier Khrushchev's call for an 18-nation summit meeting on disarmament.

He can't afford to brush off the summit proposal lightly since any embarrassment to Khrushchev would ruin his present agreeableness; he can't let Khrushchev have a propaganda edge; and he must leave the door open to a summit meeting later.

That's a big order. But at home the President is getting only a little criticism from the Republicans, most busy criticizing themselves, and practically none from his own Democrats. It's different with Khrushchev.

He doesn't have that kind of domestic quietness while trying to concentrate on out-manuevering Kennedy abroad. He has had to wrestle with his Red Chinese allies and even Russian Stalinists who won't buy his soft-sell on communism.

Even Kennedy's two biggest allies, British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan and French President Charles de Gaulle, are in trouble at home and abroad.

Macmillan, working with Kennedy on dealing with Khrushchev, has been under sharp criticism in Britain. De Gaulle, trying to bring peace to Algeria in Africa, faces the possibility of civil war at home between left and right.

There are some solid reasons for Kennedy's not dashing off to a summit meeting, just because Khrushchev wants one next month.

Kennedy, like President Eisenhower before him, takes the position that before the top men go to all the trouble of meeting their representatives ought to iron out most of the details.

In the first place, if 18 heads of state went to Geneva March 14 they'd waste days just making speeches before they got down to business at all. That would be inevitable.

In the second place, an international audience such as Khrushchev has in mind would give him a chance to perform. It's not unfair to think that's exactly what he'd do, just as he did when he went to the United Nations.

In the third place, the only thing that counts is the big powers' earnestness—or lack of it—in wanting to reach a disarmament agreement. In the more than 16 years since the war they haven't done it.

If they are earnest now, they can instruct their regular negotiators to get down to cases. If the earnestness is demonstrated but the negotiators bog down, Kennedy, Khrushchev and others can have a summit to settle the deal.

Akron Mayor Asks DiSalle's Help In Water Problem

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Fearing the possible contamination of wells which furnish water to Cuyahoga Falls, the mayor of that city has asked Gov. Michael V. DiSalle for help in controlling pollution in the Cuyahoga River.

Mayor David L. Sanders told the governor in a letter Tuesday: "For some time, we have been concerned about the substantial amounts of untreated or partially-treated sewage that is being discharged in the Cuyahoga River upstream from our municipally-owned well field."

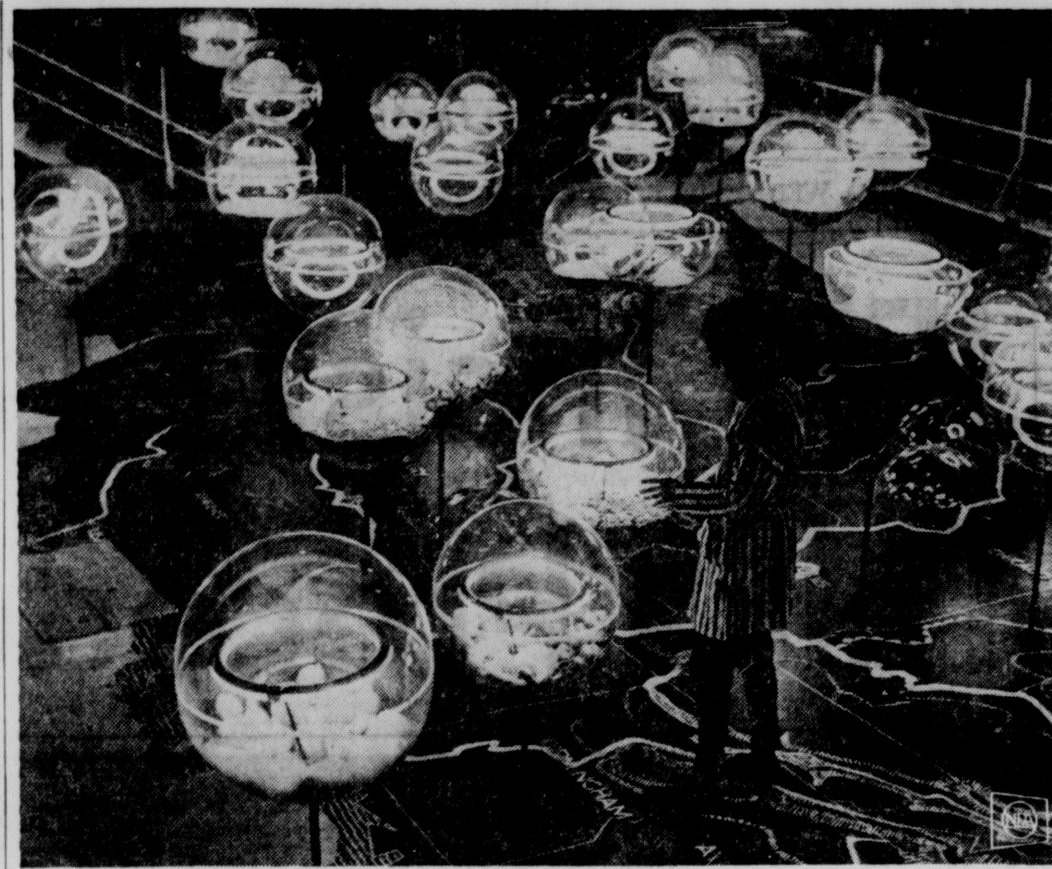

He said the city of Stow is discharging 840,000 gallons a day of almost wholly untreated sewage into the river, within about 300 yards of the well field.

"The Sonoco paper mill in Munroe Falls is daily discharging 250,000 gallons of sulfide wastes and the city of Kent is discharging 1,200,000 gallons per day—a portion of which is raw sewage and the balance of which has had a primary treatment only," the mayor wrote.

The mayor said a substantial portion of the water in the deep wells comes from the river.

Mayor Sanders said he is appointing a six-man committee of citizens to try to find a solution to the pollution problem.

James H. Ross, named chairman of the committee, said he will try to secure enforcement of state laws against river pollution.

Glenn's Parents Not Surprised At Delay Of Flight

NEW CONCORD, Ohio (AP)—Another postponement in the man-in-space flight held little surprise for the parents of astronaut John H. Glenn Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Glenn Sr. told of the postponement early today, were not perturbed. Neither was the village, the hometown of the marine lieutenant colonel tabbed for the job of being the first American to orbit the earth three times.

The parents had talked to their son Tuesday night in a telephone conversation. The astronaut had told them that he was fine but that weather conditions would dictate whether or not his flight would go on schedule.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn had planned to watch the scheduled blast-off on television in their home here with Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Thompson of Cambridge, and their son, Maj. Robert Thompson of Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, Dayton. Mrs. Glenn and Mrs. Thompson are sisters.

The many postponements have not disturbed Mr. and Mrs. Glenn because they have said from time to time that their son has briefed them thoroughly on the many factors, both mechanically and otherwise, that could delay and postpone scheduled blast-offs.

They had retired early Tuesday night to watch the firing by television, and they learned about the postponement shortly after it was announced at Cape Canaveral.

North Vietnamese Troops Aiding Pro-Red Rebels

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—American officials here express increasing concern over intelligence reports that 10,000 North Vietnamese combat troops, advisers and technicians now are aiding neutralist and pro-Communist Laotian rebels.

The new estimate, which American experts consider reliable, is that 7 to 10 battalions of North Vietnamese combat troops totaling about 5,000 men are in operation or stationed in five sensitive areas.

Another 5,000 North Vietnamese advisers and technicians are reported helping the Pathet Lao and neutralist forces.

This puts the total of Pathet

Lao, neutralist and North Vietnamese forces in Laos at between 30,000 and 40,000 armed men, according to intelligence estimates.

On the side of Prince Boun Oum's right-wing government are some 70,000 men in the regular army and militia aided by about 1,000 American advisers. Despite this apparent numerical superiority, the government has relatively few battalions capable of moving into action with mobility.

Intelligence reports indicate the North Vietnamese are the shock troops for continuing rebel attacks and that after they soften up royal army positions, Pathet Lao forces follow up the attack.

Now there are times when you must assume personal responsibility for self-protection, in particular with reference to those who set themselves up as advisers on matters of health.

Let me illustrate what I am driving at by calling your attention to a pair of news stories that appeared recently. The first concerned a "doctor" who conducts a daily radio program on nutrition and allied subjects and who wrote a book on whose front cover he was listed as a "foremost nutritionist."

The book was seized by the Food and Drug Agency on charges that the federal law prohibiting false labeling of foods and drugs was being violated. Specifically, the action challenged "false claims of the medical value of vitamin and mineral food supplements."

WHEN THE CHARGES were brought to light, it was discovered that the doctorate was not in medicine as the reader might have supposed in view of the subject matter of the radio commentaries and the title of the book. The doctorate was in philosophy in the fields of health education and recreation.

Indeed, investigation disclosed the fact that the doctor had had no formal training or educational qualifications as a nutritionist.

The second instance concerned the granting of a fellowship award from the New York Academy of Pfc. James E. Stelts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald J. Stelts of 119 Walnut St., Leontia, has completed four weeks of advanced combat training with the First Infantry Training Regiment at Camp Lejeune, N. C.

Sciences to a Swiss "Professor Doctor." The award was called to the attention of the Swiss Canton of Grisons, it was learned that the "Professor Doctor," honored by our academy and our ambassador, was "neither a doctor nor a professor."

HE WAS, IN FACT, "a former errand boy, newspaper vendor and baker's apprentice." And as recently as June 26, 1958, he had been sentenced to a year in prison and a fine of $465 on charges that he had "bilked the gullible with a 'miracle' diagnosis machine."

Perhaps next time you come across testimonials reputed to come from "doctors" or foreign "professors," maybe you ought to do what the traffic cop does. Ask to see license and registration.

Bloodmobile To Visit Lisbon on March 13

LISBON — The Cleveland Regional Red Cross Bloodmobile will make the first of two visits here in 1962 at the First Methodist Church on March 13 from noon until 6 p.m.

Local physicians and nurses will assist the staff.

The American Legion Auxiliary is in charge of recruiting donors and hopes to secure a list of 175 names. The goal is 125 pints.

The blood is utilized at the Salem City and Central Clinic Hospitals and is free to area persons. Salem, Lisbon, Columbiana and East Palestine are cooperating in the blood bank program. Lisbon is behind in its cumulative quota for the past several years.

FIRE DAMAGES SET

CLEVELAND (AP) — Damage was estimated at $40,000 in the second major fire in four days in suburban Parma. The latest blaze gutted the Matthews Armature Co. Tuesday.

Last Friday, stores at Pearl and Ridge roads suffered fire damage estimated at $200,000.

Lisbon Social

Mrs. G. V. Weinstock was hostess to associates of the El-Ocho Club Monday night at her home on Franklin Square Road for duplicate bridge games. Refreshments were served.

The next meeting is Feb. 26 at the home of Mrs. Edgar Wolfe of N. Market St.

Suzanne Tulbure, honored queen, presided Monday evening over the regular meeting of Job's Daughters at the Masonic Temple.

Plans were made for several members to attend the visitation of the supreme guardian, Mrs. Gladys Claypoole from Spokane, Wash., at Weirton, W. Va., Sunday.

The next regular meeting will be Feb. 26.

SUNSHINE CLUB will meet Thursday at the home of Mrs. Olin Dodd of Franklin Square Road at 1:30 p.m. The program will be in charge of Mrs. Charles Grubbs and Mrs. John Halverstadt.

Ten members of the Past Presidents Parley of the American Legion Auxiliary met Monday night with Mrs. Merle Burson of McKinley Ave.

The group held a jewelry auction, netting $5, which will be forwarded to the Past Presidents Parley nurses scholarship fund. Mrs. Russell Shaw, the president, conducted a short business session and read an article on the objectives of past parleys. Mrs. Evelyn Wilhelm presented an article, "What Lincoln Has to Say to Us Now."

Refreshments were served. Mrs. Wilhelm will entertain the group March 12 at her home on Blockson St.

Monthly meeting of the Young Women's Bible Class of First Presbyterian Church was held Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Floyd Baker of E. Chestnut St. with 10 in attendance.

A business meeting was presided over by the president, Miss Gladys Loudon. Games and lunch followed.

Mrs. William Carlisle of W. High St. will entertain the class March 12.

Khrushchev Has Problems Too

We may rest assured that the Kennedy administration and its twice-shy advisers will be leary of the summit disarmament conference proposed by Premier Khrushchev.

They will be as suspicious of the idea of putting the heads of states together for a disarmament meeting next month as Trojans were of Greeks bearing gifts after the historic disenchantment about the wooden horse.

No one who tries to see things clearly at this juncture of the non-Communist world's troubled relations with the Soviet Union can fail to see through Premier Khrushchev's transparent duplicity. The man does not have the truth in him.

But having reached this conclusion, there is a still further possibility about Chairman Khrushchev in his position as head of the Union of Socialist Soviet Republics. It is the possibility he may be fishing for help from sources outside Russia—the possibility the trouble so many observers have detected in Communist affairs may be squeezing Khrushchev to death between factions of the Communist Conspiracy.

IT IS NOT necessary to believe Khrushchev has changed his spots to suspect he may be on a spot, himself. He is a confirmed Communist. But as a confirmed Communist he may have reached a position that cannot be reconciled with that of confirmed Communists in the Chinese People's Republic. He previously had been in a position that couldn't be reconciled with that most confirmed of all Communists, Tito of Yugoslavia.

Co-existence, instead of being a way of living in the same world with the Communist Conspiracy, may have to become a way of living in the same world with a divided Conspiracy—Communists who want to conquer the world by economic conquest and Communists who want to blast it into submersion with nuclear explosions.

Premier Khrushchev may be trying to keep himself and his followers from being wedged into a position that gives them no option but to move inexorably toward Armageddon.

They may be the victims of the same "scientific-technological elite" that Dwight Eisenhower warned the United States to be careful of in his farewell address on Jan. 17, 1961.

THE UNITED STATES, he said, was confronted with the danger that a military-industrial complex would misuse its power to force some "spectacular and costly action" that would ruin it. The conjunction of an enormous military establishment and a threat, he warned—something the United States never had coped with before.

Premier Khrushchev could be fighting the same thing in the Soviet Union. He could be appealing to the United States to help get him off a spot on which he might perish in a clash with the Stalinists inside the Soviet Union and their allies in the Chinese People's Republic.

The ultimate question of disarmament for the United States and its allies might be whether they can reach an understanding with Red China.

If disarmament ever reached that ticklish pass, the United States and its allies might have to regard Khrushchev as their ideological ace in the hole.

Brotherhood Under Fire

As had been expected, Robert Kennedy's globe-trotting is being turned to critical account by the Kennedy family's political opponents, though no one yet knows with what success.

It may turn out that the young attorney general and his charming wife, as well as the President's still younger brother Teddy and the mistress of the White House, herself, when she finally makes her trip to India, will be so captivating there will be nothing for Republican critics to carp about.

But the new travelers probably will have no more success in the long run than Richard and Pat Nixon had when they were the traveling emissaries of good will for the Eisenhower administration. That is to say, they, too, will be persecuted and hounded by Communist-organized red-hots in every corner of the world.

No highly placed American official traveling abroad can count on being spared this harrowing experience. Even press secretaries rate Communist attention, as James Hagerty learned when he went to Tokyo and as Pierre Salinger will learn some day soon. It is a curious situation that makes it possible for the Communists to get away with it.

Visitors from abroad are almost entirely free from such discourtesies in the United States. The only sour note in their welcome is an occasional placard demonstration by minorities carrying on transplanted feuds and nursing transplanted grievances in a new land. Even Germans and Japanese can count on courteous, even warm, welcomes, unmarred by the wild violences and studied insults that lie in wait for officials of the United States in every foreign city.

Is there an explanation?

Could it be that Communists unwittingly are pointing up a fact about the United States that makes it unique—that it is the only international power with strong enough sense of brotherhood to stand being kicked around? The Communists who stage the hostile demonstrations may be doing this country a favor by giving a succession of Americans a chance to show how to behave under fire.

Blood Bank Program

Local blood donors can be proud of their accomplishments in meeting bloodmobile quotas almost every time that the regional unit comes to Salem. Despite the "flu" season, more than enough donors showed up Monday and 35 unscheduled donors reported too, to contribute their pint of the life-giving fluid that is so vital for the sustenance of the blood banks in our local hospitals.

Regulars shouldn't have to bear the burden of backing up the blood bank operation, however. There are many other healthy men and women in our community who should help out. And as the writer of this editorial will attest, "there's nothing to it."

In fact, there's the satisfaction of knowing that the pint of blood you gave probably will help save someone else's life. And, it could be your own someday.

We should be thankful we're able to help such a worthy humanitarian cause.

Once Over

President proposes Congress create corporation to speed telephone calls all over world by bouncing them off satellites to orbit 6,000 miles away. Twenty-four satellites will be in system, making it possible for Ashbury Park subscriber to get Hong Kong almost as readily as Hoboken, N. J. (Probably faster.)

We had so much trouble getting phone call to a man four blocks away the other day that we are sure we could have put through call from Bird Island, Minn. to Cairo, Egypt, faster with satellite assistance.

There will be usual impatience with phone calls, no matter what the improvements are. Hoosick Falls, N. Y., subscriber will probably complain "Operator put in a call to Casablanca almost two minutes ago and haven't got it yet. What's the matter with phone service? And central will probably be telling Cicero, Ill. subscriber, "Your call to Zanzibar struck a snag on satellite No. 21," and informing irritated Cleveland, Ohio woman "On that Budapest call they don't answer."

Proposed system will also make it possible in time to televise shows around world. Think of New York being able to get David Susskind and entire panel from Manhattan Island to Budapest, "National Velvet" from Hollywood to Istanbul and Groucho Marx from California to Yokohama in twinkling of an eye!

Imagine young Dr. Malone, "Red" Skelton, Lawrence Welk, and Captain Kangaroo making leap from American program to Outer Mongolia, Saudi Arabia and Siberia almost simultaneously. (This will help world peace!)

It's a wonderful age. Fellow merely pho-

Outstanding Chief

Fire Chief Clarence Wright, who has announced his plans to retire on pension March 1, has been one of Salem's outstanding chiefs.

A fireman nearly 23 years and 11 of those years as head of the department, Clarence can take most of the credit for building up the Salem fire department to where it is one of the best-equipped, best-trained organizations in the state.

He has stepped on a few "toes" during his tenure as chief but his day-to-day goal was fire prevention and he mined no words in ordering elimination of fire hazards whenever he found them. Members of his two-platoon department have operated with peak efficiency, again a credit to his supervision.

Salem citizens' best wishes are for his speedy recovery from a heart ailment so that he may enjoy the retirement he has earned.

ing a man a couple of miles away may soon feel he is engaging in a minor league activity.

OHIO MAN, watching TV in living room, was hit by car crashing through home. To be safe these days a home should have bumpers front and rear, and red lights to indicate it is not in motion.

Connecticut town has won fight to have bird sanctuary spared from planned thoroughway. Fine, but how about action to save human sanctuaries? A man's home is his sanctuary, a place where he finds happiness and rest but he is apt to wake up any morning and find bulldozers have scooped his parlor and kitchen away and are about to demolish his bedroom and bath.

Remember away back when a man who worked only six days a week felt he was almost unemployed?

Sen. Kefauver has wound up long probe into drug industry and his intensive investigation is explained by rumor he was frightened by a pill in his boyhood.

Vanishing American: The government official who was to be found in the United States most of the time.

FCC in long probe into TV evils seemed strangely unpersevering in fighting unnecessary violence as an influence certainly not helping juvenile delinquency. No commissioner asked about the codes announced year after year pledging less murderous routines on screen or pointed out that, despite claims of TV, there is more violence than ever dished into American homes. And girls are now in almost every vicious episode.

Tourists From Algeria

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

Nelson Rockefeller has had more headaches than Abe Lincoln had crises. But apparently the New York governor's quota of political pain has not yet been filled. There is in his future a new Conservative Political Association. Its leaders are angry and energetic men and women who disagree with John Kennedy's intimation that Rockefeller is right of Barry Goldwater. Rather they believe "Rocky" is left of Kennedy. Considerable to the left!

They are attempting to launch a Conservative party in New York State. They're not certain they can get off the ground. They are practical. They talk not of Birchism nor of Gen. Walkerism.

They do believe, however, that the Republican party, in the Northeast at least, has swung to the liberals. And they want to promote a political line to prove that there are conservatives who will vote their ticket on the ballot.

Neither Nelson Rockefeller nor Sen. Jacob Javits will be on their voting machine line—if they can get on the voting machine. They'll know soon enough, for the association shortly will mail thousands of letters from their temporary headquarters at 120 Liberty st, New York City.

UNTIL THERE is a response, they will not open a formal political headquarters. Who are "they"? Among the 23-man organizing committee are William Rickenbacker, son of "Capt. Eddie"; Godfrey Schmidt, labor lawyer and former Teamster monitor; Prof. Sylvester Petro, conservative specialist in labor law at New York University; Mrs. Ida Kohlberg, known for her ceaseless championing of Nationalist China; publisher Alex Hillman of Hillman Books; Ruth Alexander, writer, and conservative Negro leaders Max Yergan and George Schuyler.

Their position is best summed up by one of their spokesmen: "The idea came," he said, "from people who believe they have not been given a vote because the Republican party in this State is dominated by candidates who will appeal to the liberals. We in the Conservative Political Association want to make the Republican party feel there are others than liberals to be reckoned with."

"Politicians want to see the size of the vote. Fine. We will try to convince them there are conservative voters who will vote on our party line on the ballot—which will not include Mr. Rockefeller. They may then give us a Republican candidate."

Nor did there appear to be any enthusiasm for Richard Nixon in the Conservative Association. None of the leaders attempted to telephone or visit the California campaigner at his Waldorf Towers suite the other day.

THE ASSOCIATION is limiting itself entirely by New York's borders.

They are at the other end of the political spectrum from the Liberal party led by labor men Alex Rose and Dave Dubinsky. The Conservatives point to the Liberal party as a force which became the balance of power in the state by giving the liberals in Democratic ranks a chance to vote on a line and be counted.

That is fair enough, say the association's leaders. That has shown the Democrats the strength and influence of the Liberal party and has resulted in a warm political partnership with the Kennedy administration.

Now the Conservatives Association seeks to polarize its strength, if any, in the state to gain the same relationship with the national Republican leadership as the Liberals have with the Democrats.

If the association leaders succeed they will develop on their side the national importance achieved by the Liberal party, which also restricts itself to New York State. For there is great energy and political talent being spent in New York by the Democrats and Liberals to defeat Mr. Rockefeller this year. This would make it certain they could carry New York's big bloc of electoral votes in '64.

THE GUBERNATORIAL race will be a tight one. If the Conservatives split the Republican vote by peeling away 50,000 to 100,000 votes, they could defeat Rockefeller.

He would do well to heed a short message once written by Abe Lincoln to another Republican governor: "I think," Lincoln wrote, "The necessity of being ready increases. Look to it."

Executive Power

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Autocratic Trend Seen In JFK's Messages

The last thing in the world that President Kennedy probably wants to do is to create the image of an autocracy. Unintentionally that's the impression conveyed by some of his messages to Congress calling for a concentration of power in the executive in everything from the fixing of agricultural prices to the raising or lowering of taxes by the White House. Also, without consulting Congress, the President has used the "executive order" authority to go beyond the written law. His subordinates have taken a cue from him and have stretched their activities beyond the principles of the Constitution itself. Here are some examples:

1. The chairman of the Federal Communications Commission speaks out with the President's approval and threatens all radio and television stations with a possible refusal to renew their licenses if they don't furnish programs according to the taste or judgment of the administration. It is denied that this is "censorship" but it certainly is a form of coercion.

2. The President's press secretary assembles in a private meeting the secretaries of members of Congress of the Democratic party and urges them to get their constituents to write letters to the TV stations, particularly in the West, which are not carrying presidential press conferences on the air. When constituents start writing to stations and telling them they have been advised by the offices of their congressmen or senators to demand that the President be given more space on television, it begins to look less like an ordinary publicity maneuver and more like a form of coercion, for the TV stations may come to feel their licenses will not be renewed if they don't play ball with the administration.

3. The press has published in recent days many dispatches from Washington telling how "censorship" operates inside the government with respect to public speeches not merely by military personnel but by civilians. The President has a legal right to withhold information as to the individual censors but the fact is that when censorship is applied the public feels that a kind of "party line" is being handed out.

4. President Kennedy has come out in favor of organizing federal employees in labor unions and has issued an executive order requiring formal recognition of such unions. While the document discreetly points out that a federal employee can refrain from joining if he wishes, and still keep his job —a sort of "right to work" doctrine — it also provides an elaborate machinery to encourage union organization.

SURPRISINGLY enough, a task force of administration officials, headed by Secretary of Labor Goldberg, has proposed — and the President has accepted its recommendations — that the "check-off" of union dues be instituted. An individual may refrain, of course, from giving permission to deduct his dues from his pay check, but the main purpose is to make dues collection easier.

5. At present, only 33 per cent of the 2.3 million federal employees are unionized. By making it possible to collect dues from a bigger percentage of federal employees not only do the unions get more revenue, but an organization is established through which political pressure can be exerted in behalf of the administration.

It could become a powerful political body. These employees, including postal workers, are located in every community in the country.

6. By executive order of the President and without authority from Congress, a company which bids for any government contract now must, in effect, give assurances to the executive departments that it will hire as yet undetermined number of persons from every race or creed or color.

This policy was adopted to a limited extent under the preceding administration, but it has been carried even further under the present administration.

An official questionnaire has been sent to 38,000 companies — each of which has contracts with the government in excess of $50,000 — asking them to list how many Negroes they employ.

WILL THEY next be asked how many of each religion they employ? How many of the 15½ million workers involved who have earned their place by merit will be deprived of their jobs to make way for the others?

This is obviously a political move in the civil rights controversy, but it is also a form of coercion in which the people's money that should be spent only by the award of government contracts to the lowest bidder, could conceivably be spent among contractors who are subservient to the government on political issues but who charge higher prices. The whole theory seems to be that "the end justifies the means." It's a doctrine which political bossism has always followed, but in these days when America is boasting abroad about the freedom of the individual in our midst, some of these goings-on seem more suitable for a "police state" than a democracy.

New York Herald-Tribune

Purely Personal

By TRUMAN TWILL

It's a darned funny thing—and you'd better not think about it—that when Bobby Kennedy gets booed by Communists while traveling abroad it's a chance for him to cope with bad actors but when it happened to Richard Nixon he should have known better than to go abroad in the first place.

As a matter of convenience, I keep shilling for more improvements on prepared frozen dinners and would like to see something done immediately about the fact the food sticks to the surface of the aluminum containers.

It was a pleasure to be able to plow snow for a change. All winter I had kept everything in readiness for the emergency when it came, though there was not, in truth, enough snow to make plowing worthwhile.

I have a hunch that when some of the people buzzing about George Romney learn more about his ideas they will lose their enthusiasm about boosting him into the line of succession for the White House. He is as wild as that maverick of another generation of businessmen, Herbert Hoover, who scared the pants off the stand-patters of the '20s.

Every so often a couple of cents come along at the same time who seem to me to be working the same side of the street under the same evil omen, though they don't know each other—don't even live in the same country. One of them is Raoul Salan, willing to kill 80 million Frenchmen to have his way if necessary. The other one is closer to home.

I will bet anyone my dollar against their penny that if they come back in 100 years education will bear no resemblance to what we're doing now, which is not logical, clearly is not efficient and mostly is the product of mischance.

Nearly everything about Abraham Lincoln seems to me to have been cast in a tragic mold, but nothing more so than his long ordeal with a nagging wife who finally became so mentally irresponsible she was kept under professional care after the death of her long-suffering volunteer nurse-hand.

I have experienced a new dimension of frustration — being turned away in a snow flurry from the door of a house you have driven many miles to locate so you can ask the occupants to contribute to a worthy cause—and noting that the instructions on the campaign folder say to be enthusiastic at all times.

The practice of labeling everybody rightist, leftist, radical conservative, radical liberal, extremist and so on has caused so much confusion, the labels are meaningless. I classify all people according to whether they respect my right to my own opinions. If not, I am against them.

News of Interest to Farmers

ENDICOTT, N. Y. — Many farmers do little more than wet a finger, stick it to the wind, twist a blade of straw grass between the teeth and then decide: It's time to plant the "back fery" with wheat.

This week, a University of Iowa agriculture professor said here that it's time to bring up some heavy equipment to help farmers in their planning. The professor, Dr. Earl O. Heady, told an agriculture symposium sponsored by the International Business Machines Corp. that if a farmer told his problems to a computer, rather than to the wind and the grass, far greater profits could be his.

To Dr. Heady, the planning problems of a farmer are far more complex than those facing industrialists or businessmen. The reason: Many more variables must be taken into consideration by the farmer than the others.

DR. HEADY suggested farmers could take advantage of a computer technique developed during World War II to help military planners decide and where, to their best advantage, they should commit men and materials to fight win battles and end the fighting.

The technique, called linear programming, since has been applied by businessmen and manufacturers to help them decide how much inventory to keep, how much of a product to make, where to ship it, how many men to hire, how much money to pay them and the like.

Dr. Heady already has applied the technique down on the farm. Results of experiments show, he said, that a farmer should earn a minimum of 10 times more than he spends for such planning. In other words, if the farmer spent $200 for a computer plan, profits should increase by $2,000.

The Iowa State agricultural economist figures that a farmer managing 200 acres (a typical size for an American farm) has thousands of alternatives facing him as he starts each year.

OBVIOUSLY such a farmer could not afford to own a computer, but, if he kept good enough records, he could get a bank or an agricultural extension service or a commercial farm management company and ask them to use their computer to draw up a plan.

Into the machine could be fed all the information about the number of beef cattle, dairy cows, goats, sheep, chickens and other livestock the farmer owned; the number of acres available; the yield of his land; the number of possible market prices; possible weather variations; the number of employees available, and his financial assets.

A half hour after all the information is fed in the computer telling the farmer what to plant for the most profit.

SIMILARLY, it would tell him how much livestock to raise, how many men to hire, when to plant, when to harvest and when to slaughter.

Dr. Heady's program so far does not take weather into consideration and he concedes that a particularly bad break in the weather such as a tornado, drought or flood could upset the computer's plan. But, he said, the computer could match wits with nature by making some changes in the program.

"Up to now, most farming has been quite hit or miss," said Dr. Heady, whose plans, he thinks, could change all that.

WASHINGTON (AP)—An Agriculture Department study shows the wheat farmer's share of the consumer dollar spent for bread has been cut almost in half since the 1947-49 period. The share was 11 cents last year, compared with 20 cents in the earlier period.

During this same time, the farmers' share of the dollar spent for all foods declined from 50 to 38 cents. Rising processing and distributing costs were largely responsible for this shrinkage.

Generally speaking, farmers got a larger share of the money spent for livestock product foods than for foods made from cereals, fruits and vegetables. For example, last year producers got 56 cents out of every dollar spent for beef, but this was down sharply from the 71 cents received in the 1947-49 period.

The farm share from pork products was 53 cents last year and 69 cents in the earlier period. In the case of butter, the shares were 71 and 75 cents, respectively, or fluid milk, it was 43 and 53 cents, for eggs 66 and 72 cents, for cheese 41 and 54 cents, for lamb 48 and 69 cents.

The farmer got a much larger cut from flour than from bread—33 cents in 1961 and 43 cents in 1947-49. In the case of corn flakes, the shares were 10 and 19 cents, respectively.

The apple grower's take was 36 cents out of each dollar, compared with 37 cents in the earlier period. It was 35 cents for oranges, compared with 27 cents in the late 1940s. But the producer portion from potatoes dropped from 49 cents in the earlier period to 27 cents last year.

The farm share for dried beans dipped from 49 to 35 cents, sugar from 40 to 34 cents, vegetable shortening from 44 to 36 cents, cabbage from 28 to 24 cents, rolled oats from 34 to 17 cents, and onions from 44 to 33 cents.

Farm shares of a few items increased during this period, such as salad dressing from 26 to 34 cents, margarine from 31 to 32 cents, grapefruit from 16 to 17 cents and dried prunes from 31 to 44 cents.

Civil War Group Makes Dinner Plans

Plans for a public dinner marking the anniversary of the famous Civil War raid by Union soldiers into Georgia in which a locomotive and train were stolen were outlined at a meeting of the Tri-State Civil War Roundtable Tuesday night at East Liverpool.

Wayne Wallace of Wellsville RD, president, announced preparations are being made to hold the event early in April in East Liverpool. Judge Louis Tobin, chairman of the dinner committee, has been authorized to invite State Sen. Lowell Fess of Yellow Springs, a member of the Ohio Civil War Centennial Commission, to the event.

William Pittenger of Jefferson County and William Campbell of Salineville were among the some 20 men who made the raid into Georgia in 1862 in an effort to disrupt railroad connections in the Confederacy prior to a Union thrust.

The escapade, later called "The Great Locomotive Chase," ended in the capture of the raiders, with Campbell and seven others being hanged.

At last night's meeting Richard Wilson of East Liverpool read a paper on news gathering and editorial methods of newspapers during the Civil War.

The roundtable authorized a return to the original schedule of meeting on alternate second Tuesdays and Wednesdays of each month. The group had been meeting on the second Tuesday, but members reported many could not attend Tuesday sessions.

The group will meet again March 16.

Theft of Ice Cream Bar Results In Jail Sentence for Youth

OBERLIN, Ohio (AP)—Theft of a 10-cent ice cream bar resulted in a $50 fine and a jail sentence for an Oberlin college freshman, David M. Stigler, 20, of Flossmoor, Ill.

Municipal Court Judge David R. Goldthorpe sentenced Stigler and a second student Tuesday in a crackdown on shoplifting. The judge sentenced Stigler to 30 days in jail but suspended 25 days of the sentence and allowed the student to serve his time at night, meaning he spends 10 nights in jail.

For stealing a textbook, Darryl R. Stromberg, 20, a junior from Long Beach, N.Y., was sentenced to 30 days and fined $100. Twenty days of that sentence were suspended, and Stromberg will serve his time over a period of 20 nights.

In addition, the two are to appear later this week before the college's Men's Board, according to Thomas Bechtel, dean of men.

Bechtel said the board can invoke penalties, including possible suspension.

RATES RUNNING SAME

CLEVELAND (AP)—The 1962 rate schedule for iron ore transportation on the Great Lakes will remain at the level that has been in effect since 1957, Great Lakes Freight Bureau, Inc., announced Tuesday.

Rates stated by the bureau, an association of eight shipping firms, range from $2 a gross ton from the head of the lakes to all lower lakes ports to $1.20 a gross ton for shipments from Escanaba, Mich. to Chicago.

ASK COURT SUPPORT

CINCINNATI (AP) — Four groups of union workers who left the Teamsters Union want Common Pleas Court to defer a suit by the international union until Union chief James Hoffa answers some questions.

The four asked court deferment Tuesday, saying "they need

Hoffa's replies on his money dealings with some truck firms in order to frame their defense against a Teamster suit.

ONE FINED, ONE FORFEITS

LISBON — One motorist was fined for failing to obey a stop sign by County Judge James L. MacDonald Tuesday and another forfeited a bond when he failed to appear for a hearing on a charge of speeding.

William E. McKenzie, 38, of Wellsville RD was fined $5 and costs, and Robert L. Crow, 56, Cleveland Heights, forfeited a $15 bond.

Legion Honors Memory of 16 Deceased

The memory of 16 deceased members was honored Sunday when the Charles H. Carey Post of American Legion held a memorial and obligation service at the home.

The deceased members are Charles McCorkhill, Lawrence Schaeffer, Hobart Butcher, Lester Lehman, Ross Helman, William Reardon, Mike Volpe, Alfred Klotzly, Harry Ross, Fred Burchfield, Peter McNabb, James Britt Sr., Harold Hise, George Koonz, James P. Hayden and Louis Coccia.

This year's class of 17 obligated into the Legion was dedicated to the memory of Hobart Butcher. Obligation ceremonies were conducted by members of the post because the Canton degree was unable to attend as scheduled.

Members given their obligation were Lurtice Kniesey, George J. Pacurar, Isaac Kidder, Ross C. Joseph, Theodore Beery, William Galchick, Richard Lantz, Robert Berg, Arthur Votaw, Ray Wright, Ford Joseph Jr., Steve Karnofel, Martin Catlos, Raymond Hiltbrand, Michael J. Guappone, Roger Tuel, William Salmen and Martin Polder.

Following the ceremonies a program was presented and a buffet lunch was served by the Ladies Auxiliary.

Accordian music was presented by John Dermotta.

Another family affair is being planned by the post for early in March.

The next meeting will be Monday at 7 p.m. in the post home, when plans will be discussed for a youth program to be presented in the near future.

Conferences Planned For Engaged Couples

A Pre-Cana conference for engaged couples will be held at St. Paul's Catholic School Sunday at 1:30 p.m., with conferences also scheduled for Tuesday, Thursday and Friday evenings.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo J. Tauger are chairmen. Members of the committee are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Less, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald DuRand, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Bober, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Gittleman and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ross.

TRUCK DAMAGES CAR

The front end of a car driven by Robert L. Theiss, 43, of Dover, was damaged when a tractor-trailer backed into it at the intersection of S. Ellsworth Ave. and Aetna St. at 4:52 p.m. Tuesday.

Police said both vehicles had stopped for a traffic light and when the driver of the tractor-trailer, Philip Wilson, 35, of RD 3, Bradford, Ill., attempted to back up to allow another truck to make a turn, he backed into Theiss' car.

12 ARRESTS MADE

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—Authorities have arrested 12 men believed to be part of a ring that took part in at least 24 burglaries.

One of the cases police said was cleared up in questioning the 12 was the burglary last November in which $16,000 worth of business machines was taken from the Burroughs Corp.

Customer Steals Ring From Tavern Owner

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The customer kept insisting that tavern operator Joseph Letow shake hands with him—with the left hand. Letow finally acceded.

A half-hour later, Letow told police, he noticed his $800 ring was missing. So was the south-paw shaker.

Deaths and Funerals

Oscar A. Anderson

Oscar A. Anderson, 79, of 5519 W. 64th St., Chicago, Ill., died early Tuesday morning in a Chicago hospital.

In failing health for the past two years, he had been seriously ill since Feb. 4.

Born in Sweden Dec. 19, 1882, he came to this country in 1905. He married Almida Jansson, also from Sweden, in 1907.

Besides his wife at the home he leaves a son, Henry J. Anderson of Salem, president of the Salem Label Co.; a daughter, Mrs. Leonard Bryar of Chicago, and three grandchildren.

Funeral service will be held Thursday at 1 p.m. at the Bourne Funeral Home, 6541 S. Kedzie, Chicago.

Glenn

southeast of Cape Canaveral.

If the bad weather forecast continues unchanged, the ninth postponement might be announced officially about midafternoon today.

The eighth postponement was made known to newsmen shortly after 2 a.m. today.

As soon as the cancellation was determined, O. B. Lloyd, NASA public information director, advised the White House of the delay by telephone.

Glenn was awakened at 2:15 a.m. by his doctor, William K. Douglas, and advised of the postponement. He had gone to bed in his special quarters four miles from the launch pad at 7 p.m.

He was scheduled to arise at 2 a.m., for Tuesday's 7:30 a.m. launch.

Lt. Col. John H. Powers, another NASA spokesman, said Glenn accepted the nerve-fraying news calmly and ate what was to have been his pre-launch breakfast.

Powers quoted Glenn as saying: "Well, we knew the weather was forecast to be marginal, so I'm not too surprised. All we can do now is watch the weather. Everything else, including me, is going to be going back to bed and get some rest."

The decision to postpone the flight was made by Walter C. Williams, Project Mercury operations director, after a two-hour weather conference which began at midnight.

This conference drew on information gathered by wide ranging weather planes and from ships stationed in the areas selected for a landing by Glenn, depending on whether he made one, two or three trips around the globe.

Asked how long the launch could be postponed on a day-to-day basis, Powers said: "We can go on this way for four or five days."

The NASA statement detailing the 24-hour delay said:

"The weather indication was considered to be unsatisfactory for a launch Wednesday morning. The forecast for the next 24 hours is for continued marginal weather in the emergency landing areas from Bermuda to the Canary Islands. A low pressure system located in the mid-Atlantic is expected to produce continued cloudiness, moderately rough seas and moderate winds."

Powers put this into simpler language in explaining the length of the weather conference.

"It was a matter of evaluation," he said, "getting reports from down range ships. This was what really took so long, waiting for reports from the ships. There's some pretty rough weather out there."

Under no circumstances, according to previous information from NASA, will Glenn be sent on his mission to circumnavigate the globe three times through space if the waves in any of the planned landing areas exceed five feet and the winds are stronger than 20 miles per hour.

While there was no report on wind velocities in the landing areas, the waves were still breaking at eight feet.

This was the eighth time Glenn had been scheduled for launching. The first time was Dec. 20.

Salem Man Sentenced On Contributing Count

LISBON — After hearing two hours of testimony Tuesday before Juvenile Court Judge Louis Robin, Ralph Anderson, 39, of Salem RD 5, changed his plea to guilty of contributing to the delinquency of two former neighbor girls, aged 11 and 13 and a boy 14.

The three youngsters were apprehended for shoplifting at Boardman Plaza Feb. 3.

Judge Tobin sentenced Anderson to six months in the county jail and fined him $200 and costs. His jail sentence was suspended on good behavior, and he must make restitution to the stores.

The Columbiana County Welfare Department was ordered to conduct an investigation into the children's homes. Their hearing was set for Feb. 26 by Judge Tobin.

Francis T. Gunn

LISBON—Francis T. Gunn, 223 W. Lincoln Way, died suddenly at his home at 5 a.m. today. He was 70.

Born Sept. 1, 1891 in Salem, he was a son of John and Sara Moran Gunn. He lived his entire life in this vicinity. He was a retired meat cutter.

Surviving are his wife, Kathryn O'Malley Gunn of the home, whom he married April 21, 1915; two daughters, Mrs. Marion Byres of Boardman and Mrs. Joseph Hill of Lisbon; a son, Richard Gunn of Cincinnati; six grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Services will be held Friday at 1:30 p.m. at the Henry Funeral Home by Rev. William Brown of the First Methodist Church. Burial will be in Lisbon Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Thursday from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m.

Jackie K. Johnson Jr.

NEWTON FALLS — Jackie Kenton Johnson Jr., 2½-year-old son of Jackie K. and Doris Elaine Hudson Johnson of RD 1, Berlin Center, died at 2:15 p.m. Monday at Trumbull Memorial Hospital in Warren of complications following an extended illness.

He was born in Salem July 8, 1959.

Survivors are his parents, the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy N. Johnson of Berlin Township; maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur H. Hudson of Lake Milton, and six great-grandchildren.

Services will be held at 11 a.m. Friday at the James Funeral Home in charge of Rev. W. T. Dick of the First Assembly of God Church of Salem. Burial will be in West Berlin Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Thursday from 7 to 9 p.m.

Mrs. Sylvester Harsh

MINERVA — Mrs. Eliza Harsh, 82, of 415 East St. died at 10:10 p.m. Tuesday in Alliance City Hospital of a heart attack suffered Feb. 8 at her home.

Born near Sharon, Pa., she had been a resident of Minerva for 65 years. Her husband, Sylvester, died in 1957.

She was a member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church.

Survivors are one daughter, Mrs. Nellie Boerner, with whom she made her home; a son, Carl W. Harsh of Minerva; one sister, Mrs. Mabel Forrest of Bakersfield, Calif., and two grandchildren.

Services will be held at 2 p.m. Friday at the Gotschal-Hutcheson Funeral Home, with Rev. Milton R. Davis officiating. Burial will be in Eastlawn Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Thursday from 7 to 9 p.m.

Ryan

to show "any sweeping approval" of the Democratic administration.

The 14th's contest, filling the vacancy left by the death last fall of veteran Democratic Rep. Louis C. Rabaut, was considered of national import.

President Kennedy plumped for Ryan. Prior to the election Kennedy wrote Ryan expressing confidence the voters were aware of the election's importance and saying he counted on Ryan's future support of the administration in Washington.

A Cabinet member, Abraham Ribicoff, secretary of health, education and welfare, visited Detroit in behalf of Ryan.

Sens. Barry Goldwater of Arizona and Everett Dirksen of Illinois and Rep. Charles Halleck of Indiana endorsed Waldron.

Waldron's overwhelming support in the so-called silk-stocking precincts of Detroit's suburban Grosse Pointes helped to make the race close.

Waldron, serving his fourth term in Michigan's House of Representatives, had a 13,835-3,740 margin outside Detroit, mostly in the Pointe communities.

The 14th, solidly Democratic for almost all of the late Rep. Rabaut's 25 years in Congress, is composed of parts of Detroit's East Side and the suburbs of Harper Woods and the Pointes.

Ryan, 50, an attorney, has been Senate minority leader in the Michigan Legislature since 1955.

Board of Realtors Hears Atty. Miller

The Columbiana County Board of Realtors met Tuesday night at the Timberlanes, with Atty. Earl Miller of the Farmers National Bank as guest speaker.

Atty. Miller spoke on the new laws affecting land contracts; new marketability of title property and banks' financing of leased property in respect to the lessee.

The next meeting of the board will be held March 13 at 6:30 p.m. at the Timberlanes.

Student Loan Plan Announced by AMA

CHICAGO (AP)—The American Medical Association announced today a medical education loan program that would advance students up to $10,000 over a seven-year period and defer the payment-due dates until they are ready to start practicing.

The loan program is designed to assist needy students at any stage of their medical education—from the start of their first year of medical school to physicians in residency and training.

The loans, to be offered at 5½ per cent simple interest, will be guaranteed against default by the AMA Education and Research Foundation. Guarantee funds will be solicited from physicians and other private sources.

The AMA announcement said the loans will be available to full-time students in good academic standing who are United States citizens, providing they attend a medical school approved by the AMA's Council on Medical Education or are in residency or internship training in a hospital approved by the council. Applications can be made sometime after March 1.

Under the plan, borrowers will be limited to $1,500 plus interest in any single 12-month period and a $10,000 total in seven years. Borrowers may not be indebted for more than $15,000 for educational purposes from all sources.

United PTA Hears County Welfare Talk

United Parent Teacher Association met Monday evening in the school, with William Maple of Kensington in charge.

Donald Hepp of the Columbiana County Child Welfare Department was introduced by Joseph Marra. He spoke on "Welfare Work in Columbiana County." He discussed cases investigated by the department and showed photographs to illustrate the physical neglect in several county family homes.

Maple announced the nominating committee for next year as Mrs. Alice Hartman, Rolland Dorr and Mrs. Howard Blanchard.

The PTA will meet March 12 at 8 p.m.

Mike Kupinski is directing the annual minstrel show to be held April 27 and 28.

Salem Youth Guilty on Manslaughter Charge

LISBON — Common Pleas Court Judge Raymond S. Buzzard found Russell H. Miner, 19, of Salem guilty of second degree manslaughter after a trial Monday.

Miner was indicted by the January Grand Jury in the traffic death of Raymond C. Shofstahl, 53, of Petersburg, last Nov. 5 on Rt. 14, east of Columbiana.

Miner requested a probation investigation which was ordered by the court. His $1,500 bond was continued.

Scheduled for trial Thursday is Richard Masterson, 25, Columbiana RD 2, charged with carrying concealed weapons and burglary of Smith's Feed Mill on Rt. 7, northwest of East Liverpool, last Dec. 26.

Youth Finds Skating Pond Not for Auto

Richard L. Adams, 18, of 1654 N. Ellsworth Ave. was fined $10 and costs by Mayor Dean B. Cranmer Tuesday for driving his car on the ice skating pond at Memorial Park.

Charles C. Fraysier, 24, of Alliance, forfeited a $20 bond in mayor's court Tuesday for speeding. He was arrested by police on Jennings Ave.

Hein Is Named Bliss Company Controller

Ronald J. Hein has been appointed controller of the E. W. Bliss Company, Canton, it is announced today by E. W. Sundberg, treasurer.

In his new position, Hein will direct all company accounting activities. He has been assistant treasurer of the Eagle Signal Division of the Gamewell Company, a wholly-owned Bliss subsidiary, since 1957. He is a graduate of Iowa State University.

at the foreign minister level.

"I feel that until there have been systematic negotiations—until the main problems have been clarified and progress has been made, intervention by heads of government would involve merely a general exchange of governmental positions which might set back, rather than advance, the prospects for disarmament," Kennedy said.

Kennedy said he was gratified to learn that Khrushchev agreed with the U.S.-British conclusion that heads of government should assume personal responsibility for the success of the forthcoming disarmament negotiations. The question, he said, is how to discharge most usefully that responsibility.

In their original proposal to start the negotiations at the foreign minister level, Kennedy and Macmillan had urged that the chiefs of government assume a personal responsibility for directing the course to be followed by their negotiators. They suggested further that it be agreed in advance to keep the negotiators in session until positive results have been achieved.

"I do not believe that the attendance by the heads of government at the outset of an 18-nation conference is the best way to move forward," Kennedy said today.

The President said he agreed with Khrushchev's observation that a better basis exists now than previously for success of the conference, although substantial differences between the East and West linger on.

As an example, Kennedy cited Soviet unwillingness to consent to allow a disarmament control agency to verify that agreed levels of manpower and armament are not exceeded.

Kennedy said the conference must search for means for overcoming differences by specific disarmament measures.

This does not mean sticking to routine procedures or that heads of government should not take interest in negotiations from the very start, he said.

"It does mean that much clarifying work will have to be done in the early stages of negotiation before it is possible for heads of government to review the situation. This may be necessary in any case before June 1 when a report is to be filed on the progress achieved," he said.

The United Nations set June 1 as the first deadline for a report on progress toward a disarmament agreement.

Steel Talks

a huddle on their own.

As in the past, it was expected that McDonald and Cooper and their aides will eventually hammer out the new agreement terms privately when the spade-work has been done in larger meetings.

In Washington, Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges predicted an early, non-inflationary settlement—one that won't require "much of an increase, if any" in steel prices.

Close observers said the union could adhere to administration counseling to confine labor gains to increases in productivity and still come out with a handsome settlement in the neighborhood of 10 to 12 cents an hour. Workers presently earn between $2.28½ and $4.38½ an hour.

The union has set job and income security as the major goal for its 430,000 members involved in basic steel negotiations as well as its 500,000 members in steel fabricating, aluminum and other industries. It says it wants a wage boost, too, but there are no specific asking figures.

County Planning Unit Plans Pushed

LISBON — Plans to form a study group on a proposed Columbiana County Planning Commission were approved Tuesday night when a steering committee met with County Commissioners Galen Greenisen and Frank Wilson Tuesday night.

Atty. Donald Elliott of Rogers, a member of the steering committee, said the study group will be formed within 30 days. It will be composed on the following basis:

Five from the East Liverpool area; three, Salem; two, Wellsville; one each, Columbiana, East Palestine, Lisbon; three from the western section of the county composed of Knox, West, Hanover and Butler townships; two from the southern area and three to be selected at random.

improvement, declaring the project would not benefit enough people to warrant the expenditure.

Highway department officials said they believed the elimination of the bridges was the most important improvement which could be made to the highway. McKenna explained that if that section was not improved, the highway department probably would spend the money in another county since the department has made no recommendations on other improvement to the route.

Appearing at the hearing with McKenna from the highway department were Robert Jenkins, planning and designing engineer; Richard Shaefer, engineer in designing; Wayne Gotchel and John Ellwood, right-of-way procurers; and Richard Robinson, public relations department.

Powers

the release of Abel and of Powers.

He said he is happy Powers is back and that he can add only that Powers is cooperating voluntarily with the government in discussions of important information.

Powers will be free to testify to Congress after the official interrogation and will be made available to the press "at the earliest possible moment," the President promised. There have been numerous demands in Congress for committee interrogation of the pilot.

The President was asked what Powers' status would be after the quizzing. Kennedy said Powers would be a free agent, able to carry on any activity he chose.

Powers and his high-altitude U2 reconnaissance plane crashed 1,200 miles inside Russia. Powers was seized, tried on espionage charges, pleaded guilty, and was sentenced to 10 years in prison.

After months of secret negotiations, he was exchanged for Abel, a Soviet master spy, who was convicted in 1957 of stealing U.S. military and atomic secrets and given a 30-year prison sentence.

The trade took place Saturday in the center of a bridge dividing West Berlin from Communist East Germany shortly after dawn.

A cloak of secrecy promptly was thrown around Powers. He was rushed by plane to the United States for a reunion with his wife and parents and questioning by American authorities, apparently at a hideout on the eastern shore of Maryland.

A second major topic of the day came up second at the Kennedy session with newsmen.

Floods

ened to rip out a bridge across the Green River between Green River, Wyo., and the Flaming Gorge dam construction town of Dutch John in northeastern Utah.

Gov. Robert E. Smylie said President Kennedy to declare southeastern Idaho a disaster area and provide $250,000 in immediate aid. He put the damage at $5 million.

In Pocatello, thousands joined in the fight to hold back the Portneuf River, which was six feet over flood stage. Fifty thousand sandbags were flown to Pocatello from an Army depot at Stockton, Calif.

Lt. Col. James S. Keel, Idaho's civil defense director, said that at least 450 homes in Pocatello were awash; 600 were flooded to some degree in Idaho Falls; most of the homes of the 500 persons in Bancroft and 680 in Sugar City also were flooded. Keel said the major trouble spots were Pocatello and, potentially Blackfoot.

No severe cold weather was reported in the country but rain, sleet and snow hit sections of the Midwest and East. Up to six inches of snow fell in a six-hour period in Escanaba and Sault Ste. Marie, Mich.

The snow-rain-sleet belt extended from the upper Mississippi Valley into much of the Great Lakes region, eastern Pennsylvania, western New York State and northern Maryland.

A sleet storm pelted a wide section of Chautauqua County in New York along the shore of Lake Erie. Heavy accumulations of ice on power lines disrupted service and created hazardous driving conditions. Rain and fog extended across areas in the eastern Ohio Valley and the mid-Atlantic coast.

Coldest weather was in the Northeast but temperatures moderated from below-zero marks.

Record high temperatures for the date were set in some Midwest and Southern cities Monday. The 85 in Montgomery, Ala., was a record high for February and the 84 in Mobile, Ala., was a record high for Feb. 1. Other records included 82 in St. Louis, Mo. 80 in Memphis and 74 in Cairo, Ill.

Grange News

Greeley Meeting Held

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Lowmiller and Loretta Oyer were visitors at a Greeley grange meeting.

Three appeals for aid were granted. An invitation was read for the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Elton Lowmiller on Sunday. Announcements were Youth Meeting at Greeley Feb. 19, Pomona Grange at Guilford Saturday.

Program was as follows: Piano solo, Mrs. Florence Carle; piano, Elizabeth King; slides, "Tour on Timber," Marion Sanor and Cecil Hahn; poem, "A Wedding Anniversary," Janice Hahn.

The Bayard Quartet composed of Dwight Gotschall, John and George Brothers and Edgar Eick, with Mrs. Isabelle Brothers accompanist, entertained with four numbers.

A wedding cake baked and decorated by Betty Jane Weaver was presented to Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Lowmiller by Mrs. Carl Murray.

FINED FOR OVERLOAD

Eliza Burge, Jr., 39, of Mingo Junction, was fined $80 and costs by Mayor Dean B. Cranmer today for driving an overloaded truck.

Three City Streets To Be Improved

Three city streets, which were resurfaced last fall but are now showing the effects of freezing and thawing this winter, will receive a one-half inch seal coat of asphalt next spring.

Mayor Dean B. Cranmer said the weather turned bad last November before the seal coat could be put down. As a result, the paving is breaking up in spots.

Mayor Cranmer said the City Asphalt and Paving Co. of Youngstown, who has the contract for the paving projects, will put the seal coat on the three streets without additional charge. The city and property owners on N. Broadway, N. Lundy and Penn St. each paid half of the total cost of $8,454 for the resurfacing jobs last fall.

The city's share of $4,227 was paid out of the income tax capital improvements fund.

In his speech Kennedy said the United States is sympathetic to nationalism and reminded the students "the American people fought for national independence in 1776 and have been its spearhead ever since."

The students warmly applauded Kennedy and student leaders gave him a silver dinner gong.

Foreign Minister Subandrio said Kennedy and Sukarno are seeking a speedy solution to the dispute brought about by Indonesia's claim to West New Guinea. He told newsmen the talks would resume Sunday when Kennedy returns to Jakarta.

One Happy Family

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—“We’re a team—just one big happy family,” many a business president brags in his annual report to the stockholders.

It might be more truthful if he had changed an adjective and described his organization as “one big scrappy family.”

While fringe benefits—such as piped-in music and automatic pencil sharpeners—are slowly turning the average office into an eight-hour-a-day utopia, all is not yet sweetness and light among the employees in these commercial Edens.

It doesn’t take much to turn hired hands against hired hands in the cramped confines of the ordinary business firm. Here are a few feuds you’ll probably find typical of those in your own office:

The senior vice president is hated by all the other vice presidents because he has wall-to-wall carpeting—and they don’t.

Miss Esmerelda Primp, 25 years behind the same typewriter, nurses a secret grudge against Peter Picayune, the personnel chief, because in 1937, her first year on the job, he sent a valentine to every other girl in the office—and forgot her.

Although once pals, Jack and Charlie in the shipping department have worked silently side by side without speaking to each other since 1948. They fell out over the question of whose turn it was to buy coffee and doughnuts during a coffee break.

Jasper Quill, the bookkeeper and office tightwad, is miffed at Axel Gripper, the handyman, because in 1951 Axel talked him into buying a nickel church raffle ticket. Jasper didn’t win, and is sure he was sabotaged.

Winnie Winsome, the bleached blonde stenographer, has a peeve against the two junior executives who give her a lot of sweet talk but never take her out to dinner or the theater. “Those creeps remind me of NATO—no action, talk only,” she tells the other girls.

The other girls dislike Winnie because, when they ask her to go with them to a concert, she replies, “Not me. Mozart isn’t the man I’m looking for. Besides, I’m too young to enjoy hen parties.”

Elmer Clause, the union shop steward, is mad at all management because he hasn’t had a merit raise in 12 years. At each office yuletide party he has to be forcibly restrained from stabbing the executives with the Christmas tree.

OUT OF THE PAST — Three-dollar bills really were legal tender when they were issued in 1859 by a private bank in Wilmington, N.C. Bill is held by David J. McClymont, assistant curator of a money of the world museum in a New York City bank. “Can you change a three, please?”

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cox of Salem were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ferguson of Glenmore visited Sunday with Mrs. Linnie Lange and Mrs. Effie Potts.

Mrs. Nettie Madison, and Mr. and Mrs. Cle Huey have returned after a 3-month vacation in Florida.

Mrs. Henry Van-Royan is a patient in East Liverpool City Hospital.

Jill Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Thompson of Jefferson St., is ill with chicken pox.

Mrs. Eugene Mundy is a patient in City Hospital. She suffered a heart attack.

BROWN TO RULE
CINCINNATI (AP)—Secretary of State Ted W. Brown must rule on validity of nominating petitions for three maverick Cincinnati candidates in the primary.

The Hamilton County Election Board sent Brown the petitions Tuesday for Martin J. Hogan and Elmer C. Schwartz, Democrats, and Richard A. Dawley, Republican, claiming the documents were faulty. Hogan seeks nomination for the Ohio Senate, Dawley and Schwarz for the Ohio House. All decided to run without party endorsement.

Will you leave these freedoms to your children?

Men have died to leave you these 4 symbols of freedom:

A Holy Bible—symbol of your right to worship as you wish.
(First Amendment, U. S. Constitution)

A door key—your right to lock your door against illegal government force and prying.
(Fourth Amendment, U. S. Constitution)

A pencil—freedom to speak or write what you think, whether you agree with the government or not.
(First Amendment, U. S. Constitution)

And a free ballot—your right to choose the people who represent you in government—your protection against government tyranny.
(Article I, U. S. Constitution)

In half the world, these symbols and what they stand for have been destroyed. And Khrushchev says it can happen here. He boasts that our grandchildren will live under socialism.

Unthinkable? Yes—but only so long as America guards its freedoms well. Against threats that come from inside our country, as well as from the outside.

In these critical times you would think that all of America's energies and financial resources should be concentrated on strengthening our country's defense.

But there are some people who would weaken this effort through needless government spending. They want to use billions of your tax dollars to put the government deeper into the electric power business.

Such spending is unnecessary because the investor-owned electric light and power companies can supply all the additional power a growing America will need.

Each time the government moves further into business—any business—it is another step on the road to socialism. And socialism is one thing Americans do not mean to leave to their children or grandchildren, despite what Khrushchev says.

SMUNips Texas Tech 68-63; Rice Beats Arkansas 63-55

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

They could call the Southwest Conference the leapfrog league of college basketball.

The standings are scrambled with virtually every game, and heading into the final third of the conference schedule five of the eight clubs must be considered definite title contenders and still another a definite possibility.

Tuesday night, for instance, defending champion Texas Tech appeared a good bet to lengthen its Southwest lead in a home-court game against Southern Methodist—but instead got whacked by the Mustangs 68-63.

Texas A&M's Aggies trimmed

Texas 54-48, Rice beat Arkansas 63-55, and Texas Christian clipped Baylor 80-66 in a meeting between the conference's two bottom clubs. The results left Tech, SMU and Texas A&M tied at the top with 6-3 records, Rice next at 5-4, Texas at 4-4, Arkansas 4-5, TCU 3-5, and Baylor 1-8.

SMU, loser at home to Tech earlier this season, led the Red Raiders by as many as 11 points, but for the most part it was a close one. Jan Loudermilk was high for the Mustangs with 19 points, while Mac Percival had 24 for Tech.

In another tight conference race, Duke's seventh-ranked Blue Devils (16-3) took back first place in the Atlantic Coast with a 79-53 runaway at Maryland. Duke now has a 9-2 conference mark to 8-2 for Wake Forest—with a meeting between the two coming up Thursday night at the Deacons' court.

Tom Wynne's two free throws with 25 seconds to go in the second overtime period enabled St. Joseph's (Pa.) to maintain its unbeaten record in the Middle Atlantic conference with an 80-79 victory over Gettysburg.

Bowling Green (17-2) pushed closer to the Mid-American Conference title by knocking off Kent State 82-70. Howie Komives scored 34 points for the 10th ranked Falcons, while Nate Thurmond controlled the backboards with 23 rebounds.

Connecticut continued its longstanding home-court domination over Massachusetts and tightened up the Yankee Conference, whipping the Redmen 72-56. Massachusetts, still without a victory at Connecticut since 1936, is first in the league at 6-2 with two games left, while Connecticut is 5-2 with three to go.

In the upset department: Rhode Island stopped Providence 71-61, ending the Friars' winning streak at 10, and Marquette surprised Detroit 73-66.

Ponders Three Sports Vocations

OSU's Havlicek Faces An Unusual Problem

By HAL PARIS

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Big John (Hondo) Havlicek is a man with an unusual problem.

He doesn't know whether to play professional basketball, football or baseball when his college days are over.

Havlicek, in case you haven't heard, is a rugged 6-foot-5, 205-pound forward on Ohio State's unbeaten basketball team.

He's the muscular fellow who sometimes is referred to as the Buckeyes' No. 2 gun, having played in the shadow of All-America Jerry Lucas the last three years.

In basketball parlance, he's the congenial, good-natured college kid who came to play.

And fans who have seen Mr.

Havlicek in action are convinced he is a magnificent athlete.

A senior from Lansing, Ohio, Havlicek won all-state honors in basketball, football and baseball while at Bridgeport High School. He crashed Ohio State's starting lineup in an opening game three seasons ago and has been at home ever since.

Here's a sample of what some of the men who know say about him:

Coach Fred Taylor—"A great inspirational leader. If an All-America team represents the best players in the country, the Havlicek has to be among that select five."

Assistant Coach Frank Truitt—"He's a perfect example of what hard work, determination and ability will produce."

Athletic Director Richard C. Larkins—"One of the greatest all-around athletes that ever came to Ohio State."

Browns Interested

Apparently the Cleveland Browns are sold on the unusually graceful and well-coordinated young man. The Browns made Havlicek their seventh round draft selection last December despite the fact he has played no collegiate football.

Unlike the incomparable Lucas, who insists he wants no part of pro ball, Havlicek has an ear cocked for lucrative offers.

"I'm not sure what I'll do but I plan to look into every opportunity," Hondo, as he is affectionately called by his teammates, says.

"Frankly, I prefer basketball, and would like to play in the National Basketball Association. I'm not interested in any of the new leagues."

Havlicek, a physical education major who plans to go into coaching when his playing days are over, admits he was surprised when drafted by the Browns.

"It's been a long time since I played football (he was a quarterback in high school) but if they're interested in me the least I can do is accept a trial."

How about baseball?

Plays First Base, Pitches

"I just don't know," Havlicek confides. "I didn't do too well last year, but I know I can do better."

A first baseman, Havlicek throws hard and has pitched a little.

The statistics, although impressive, do not disclose Hondo's offensive and defensive prowess.

Game after game, Havlicek draws the unenviable task of guarding the opponent's top scorer, yet he has never fouled out of a game in three seasons.

Recently, he and Lucas teamed to limit Purdue's All-America Terry Dischinger to a career low of nine points.

Havlicek is runnerup to Lucas in most departments but in Ohio State's 19 victories he has garnered 334 points on an amazing 56 per cent shooting average.

That's hitting close to 18 points a game.

He's also pulled down 181 rebounds and committed only 37 personals.

Big John has a theory on how to protect against Lucas, even though he smiles when he suggests it.

Four Quaker Starters Score In Double Digits

By LYNN BROWNE

News Sports Writer

Coach John Cabas' Salem Quakers, putting the final touches on their offensive and defensive tactics before entering tournament play next week, rolled over visiting Youngstown East 75-58 Tuesday night in the locals' next-to-last regular season game.

The win was Salem's 15th in 17 outings while the loss was East's 11th in 17 appearances.

Salem poured in nine counters before allowing its opponents to register a score, and then went on to win handily in a somewhat dull game. The Quakers led 19-8 at the end of the first quarter, 47-26 at intermission and 58-41 going into the final canto.

The Cabasmen played impressive ball in the first half of the tilt. On several occasions a Quaker was alone under the basket for an easy score. Bad passes and poor board work in the second half took the luster off their play, however.

IN THE FIRST half Salem connected on 17 of 24 floor shots for a percentage of 71 compared to the visitors' 10 hits on 31 tries for 32 per cent. The locals garnered only nine of 29 attempts in the last half to lower the night's average to 49 per cent.

The Quakers brightened one of the sore spots in their play this year by connecting on 23 of 26 free-throw attempts for 88.5 per cent. Cabas has said before that a team that does not hit on 68 per cent of their charity tosses isn't a good ball club.

Junior scoring ace Bill Beery once again led the Quakers' scoring attack. The crafty All-State candidate bombarded the buckets with 10 floor shots and five of six charity tosses for 25 counters.

Three other Quakers also scored in double digits. Senior John Borrelli meshed 13, followed by senior co-captain Ted Thorne with 12 tallies. Marlin Waller won a varsity starting assignment for the first time last night and ended the game with 10 points.

BOB ESKAY, co-captain and outside shooting specialist of the Quakers, did not dress for the game as Cabas continues his effort to have the talented senior in shape for tourney action. Eskay suffered a back injury just prior to the Niles game and has seen only limited action since that time.

Coach Cabas had little to say about last night's tilt. "What can you say about a game like that?" he asked in the dressing room after the game. "We played basketball, that's about all!"

"I will say I was pleased with our offensive play in the first half," he said, "and we played one of our better floor games in that half, too."

The head mentor wasn't as pleased with his cagers' performances in the second half, however. "We changed our offense in the last half for two reasons," he said. "For one thing, there were scouts in the stands. And secondly, to give the boys a little more experience with the new offense. Because of the changes we looked a little ragged."

CABAS LAUDED East's Cary Brown. "He kept them in the game," Cabas said. "He has a real nose for the ball; he's always in the right place."

East's Coach Ravello was generous in his compliments for the locals. "Those kids really work at those offenses," he said. "They're a tough ball club, there's no doubt about that. I think they'll be a headache to a lot of teams in the tournament, too," he added.

"I always enjoy playing here. We know that if we win here, we've beaten one of the best teams," he concluded.

Salem will return to the local hardwoods Saturday to battle Dayton Dunbar in the last regular season game. The Quakers will then enter tourney play at Youngstown Feb. 22 against Youngstown Wilson.

DIAMOND IN THE ROUGH — The Yankees face the prospect of opening the season without their All-Star shortstop, Tony Kubek, who will be in the Army for at least part of the grind. Ralph Houk ponders a problem less fortunate managers would be pleased to attempt to solve. The New York skipper may shift Clete Boyer from third base to shortstop. With Kubek gone, he still has five players available for the left side of the infield.

Platt, Capel Combine For 31 Points

Jayvees Romp To 51-38 Win Over Youngstown East Squad

Led by Rick Platt and Dave Capel, the Salem Jayvee squad romped to its 14th win in 17 outings Tuesday night by dumping Youngstown East's Reserves 51-38 in the local gym.

Platt and Capel combined to account for 31 of the locals' 51 counters. Platt swished the nets with seven floor shots and two free throws for 16 points followed closely by Capel with four goals and seven charity tosses for 15 tallies. George Begalla added 10 points to the cause.

The locals took immediate control of the game and chalked up a 15-5 lead by the end of the first quarter. At halftime they led 23-17, and were on the long end of a

Runyan Man To Beat In Seniors Event

DUNEDIN, Fla. (AP)—The favorites begin play today in the PGA Seniors Golf Championship and veteran Charles Sheppard of Pittsfield, Mass., gave them a sparkling 6-under-par 66 to shoot at.

With a bulky starting field of nearly 400, the first round of the 72 hole event was spread over two days. Those 55 and over played Tuesday and the 50-54 age group go at it today.

Defending champion Paul Runyan of La Jolla, Calif., who hasn't finished worse than second place in three tries, was picked as the man to beat.

Jimmy Demaret, of Houston and E.J. (Dutch) Harrison of San Francisco are rated the top challengers.

Sheppard, 55, cracked the 6,636-yard PGA national course for seven birdies Tuesday.

Perry Del Vecchio of Greensburg, Pa., and Tom Mahan of Beverly, Mass., plus Sam Bernardi of Winnetka, Ill., were tied for second with 68 each.

Bill Graham of Bloomfield Hills, Mich., and Hal Sanderson of Summit, N.J., each had 70.

The committees are as follows: General — William Newell, Don Gosney, Ray Spiker, John Jones; house, D. W. Bailey, Gayl Gloss; decoration, lady booster members; music, Kenneth Murphy; program, Dr. C. W. Dewalt, Richard Berryman, George Fisher, Waldo Ward; tickets and finance, William Newell, Don Gosney, Ray Spiker, John Jones, Wilder Foerch; greetings, Arthur Pfund, Walter Simpson; program, Charles Roher, John Jones; press-radio, William Allen, Robert Hum, Clyde Douglass.

Fred Taylor, head basketball coach at Ohio State University, will be the principal speaker.

Other area schools will be represented at the banquet.

Miss Jahn Seeks 2nd Slalom Medal

CHAMONIX, France (AP) — Marianne Jahn, winner of the women's giant slalom in the World Alpine Ski Games last Sunday, goes after her second gold medal in the special slalom today.

Among her chief competitors are Barbara Ferries of Houghton, Mich., and Linda Meyers of Mammoth Lake, Calif. Miss Jahn is from Austria.

The races, billed as the World Ski Games, originally were slated as 1962 World Championships but were downgraded because the East Germans failed to obtain travel permits and could not enter.

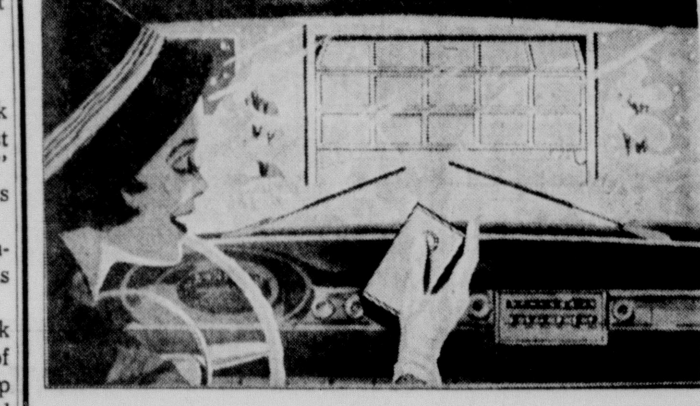

Americans had varying success in the men's special slalom race won by Charles Bozon of France Tuesday. Billy Kidd, an 18-year-old newcomer from Stowe, Vt., was eighth and Jim Heuga of Tahoe City, Calif., finished 12th.

Bud Werner of Steamboat Springs, Colo., and Charles Ferries of Houghton, Mich.—the two U.S. favorites—were in third and fourth places after the first run but were disqualified in the second run.

Werner fell twice and missed three gates on his second run.

Warriors Suffer 4th Defeat

Fired-Up Wellsville Five Nips West Branch 54-52

West Branch High's varsity basketball squad suffered its fourth loss in 16 outings as it was upset by a fired-up Wellsville team 54-52 on the winner's hardwood Tuesday night.

The Warriors, who were obviously looking ahead to their tourney opener with Canton Lehigh next week, kept pace with the Tigers the entire route and almost pulled it out in the final period with a 12-point rally.

NCAA Asks Track, Gym Federations

CHICAGO (AP) — The breach between the NCAA and AAU doesn't appear to be closing although it is being filled up with meetings.

Official organization of federations in track and field and gymnastics will come at March 4-5 meetings in Chicago, Walt Myers, NCAA executive director, announced Tuesday.

A basketball federation already has been launched.

A prompt move forward for organizing federations in track and field and gymnastics was endorsed Tuesday by forces of the NCAA and the National Federation of State High School Athletic Associations. The association is represented in every state except Texas.

The action, coming a day after a peace parley between leaders of the NCAA and AAU ended in failure, was interpreted as additional NCAA pressure in its battle over control of U.S. amateur athletics and for international recognition.

Bowling Green Turns Back KSU 82-70

By The Associated Press

Gangling Nate Thurmond and sophomore flash Howie Komives carried Bowling Green past a stubborn Kent State team Tuesday night, and the Falcons are mighty close to the Mid-American Conference basketball championship and an NCAA tournament berth.

Bowling Green turned back the cellar-dwelling Golden Flashes, 82-70, and got a helping hand as fast-improving Marshall dealt challenging Ohio University a stinging setback, 77-72.

Bowling Green now stands 9-1 in the MAC and has at least a share of the title in hand should Toledo (4-2) fall at Western Michigan tonight. Third-place Ohio U. is all but out of it now at 5-3.

Thurmond pulled down 23 rebounds, his high for the season, and scored 17 points against Kent. Komives drilled in 34 points.

Capital pulled away from a halftime tie to beat Otterbein 66-54 in the Ohio Conference; John Dunkulic set a Western Reserve record of 44 points as the Red-cats beat Wooster 91-76; WRU's neighbor, Case, got 31 points from Dave Paul and beat Fenn 87-73 as five Foxes fouled out; Wilmington defeated Cedarville 86-76 in the Mid-Ohio; Oakland City (Ind.) used starters only the first half in walloping Wilberforce 100-67, and Lawrence Tech (Mich.) beat Rio Grande 79-61 as John Bradley and Jerry Wnuk outscored the Rio team between them.

The second annual beaver trapping season begins Feb. 15 and ends Feb. 28, permitting the trappers to take two beavers during the two weeks open season.

Counties open to beaver trapping include Ashtabula, Columbiana, Mahoning, Portage and Trumbull. Permission of the landowner is required before trapping. All beavers trapped must be sealed by a game protector before the pelt can be bought or sold. The deadline for getting pelts sealed has been set to end March 5.

As a convenience to trappers, I will be at the county jail from 5 to 6 p.m. on March 2 and 5 to seal the pelts. Otherwise, you may catch me at my home at Westville Lake and I will seal pelts there, but there will be no fixed time.

LAST YEAR, 106 beavers were taken in three counties. Of the total, 52 were taken in Columbiana County and we still have a good population of beavers, that I estimate exceeds 400. I would like to see more taken this year since the population keeps increasing each year and they need to be controlled, according to my opinion.

Don't bother to call me about trapping beavers. It is up to each trapper to make his own arrangements to trap, however it seems rather strange that landowners don't hesitate to "raise all Ned" about beavers cutting their trees, flooding their pastures or flooding their spring waters all during spring and summer. Yet, when we have an open season so they can get rid of some of them, they keep quiet. To you landowners that are annual complainers, drop me a card if you want them trapped and I'll put it in this column.

Major League Appraisals

Athletics' Outfield, Prospects Improved

By HANK BAUER

KANSAS CITY (AP) — I think our club is definitely stronger than last season. With a little luck we could contend for a berth in the first division.

Our biggest weakness last season was in our outfield. This year it can't help but be better with the addition of Gino Cimoli, whom we acquired in the minor league draft; Bill Lajoie, a recent acquisition from the Los Angeles Dodgers; and Manuel Jimenez, who we obtained from the Milwaukee Braves.

Cimoli is a proven big leaguer and is only 32 years old. In 1957, he hit .293 for the Dodgers and played in the All-Star game. Last year, Lajoie finished third in the American Association batting race with a .320 mark at Omaha. Jimenez hit .325 in the Pacific Coast League with 17 homers and 76 RBI.

Another spot that could show considerable improvement is the pitching staff. Norm Bass, Jim Archer, Bill Kunkel and Ed Radow should do much better with a year of major league experience under their belts. I look for Jerry Walker to regain the form he showed while at Baltimore

Then trappers will appear from all directions. It costs the state a lot of money to send in a professional trapper to remove the nuisance beavers.

IF THIS freezing weather keeps up with all ponds and most of the streams frozen over, beaver trapping will be quite a problem and the novice trapper may trap each day without getting a beaver. The experts that know how to trap beavers aren't likely to tell their secrets.

I would also like to remind trappers that it might pay off if you checked your traps as often as possible, providing you do not get too close and scare the beavers. One thing you can expect, is that the trap thief that not only will take your trap as well. Each trapper should have his secret mark on his trap so he will recognize it any place he sees it.

BE SURE you have your name and address on the trap either stamped in or with a metal tag. This gives the game protector a chance to catch the trap thief. Actually, all a game protector has to see is a person lifting a trap that does not have his name and address on it and he can make an immediate arrest. You cannot make the game protector believe "you just lifted the trap at the request of your friend". The "friend" must attend his own traps.

One last tip about skinning a beaver. Make only one straight cut on the beaver from the lower lip to the base of the tail, then start peeling. Cut off the feet and the tail. Stretch the fur as round as possible and scrape off all flesh and fat and let dry.

when he became the youngest pitcher in big league history to win an All-Star game.

The strong point of our club is our infield with Norm Siebern at first base, Jerry Lumpe at second, Dick Howser at short and Wayne Causey at third.

We still need some help in the outfield where the most glaring weakness is lack of a right-handed power hitter, and in pitching where we need a left-handed relief pitcher.

The Yankees are again the team to beat. Detroit was a good club, but the Tigers lack a good relief pitcher and bench strength.

Broglio, 26, agreed to terms with the St. Louis Cardinals Tuesday and took a substantial pay cut after getting more than $20,000 a year ago. The right-hander, beset by arm trouble, wound up with a 9-12 won-lost record and a 4.11 earned-run average in 1961.

tional League when he won 21 games while losing 9.

Sherry received a token boost in pay of about $1,000 and okayed his pact with the Los Angeles Dodgers, calling for a reported $25,000.

The relief specialist missed three weeks last season with a sprained ankle and compiled a 4-4 won-lost record, although being credited with 15 saves. In 1960 Sherry posted a 14-10 record while appearing in 57 games.

The signings' front was brisk Tuesday as the teams continued their tasks of getting the players signed before the advent of spring training. The Cards also corralled pitchers Bob Duliba and Johnny Kucks to run their signees to 26. Second baseman Ken Aspromonte became the 33rd player in the Cleveland Indians' fold.

Only outfielder Bob Skinner and pitcher Larry Foss remained unsigned after pitcher Joe Gibbon came to terms with the Pittsburgh Pirates. The Pirates have 38 players under contract. The New York Mets completed the signing of their battery staff of 13 pitchers and 4 catchers when pitcher Bob Botz indicated he was satisfied with his pact.

Three rookies — shortstop Tom Tresh, second baseman Pedro Gonzales and outfielder Don Lock — agreed to terms with the New York Yankees. The Baltimore Orioles received signed contracts by four pitchers, Billy Short, Darold Knowles, Steve Cosgrove, and Dave McNally, giving them 28 players in the fold.

Three members of the Boston Red Sox okayed contract terms. They are third baseman Frank Malzone, catcher Russ Nixon and pitcher Billy MacLeod. Rookie infielder Dick Phillips signed his contract with the San Francisco Giants.

Pitchers Jack Spring, Bob Belinsky and George Conrad came to terms with the Los Angeles Angels, leaving only outfielder Leon Wagner and infielder Felix Torres among the unsigned.

DUCK TO THE REAR

SOMETIMES IT SEEMS as if London buses were made to carry freight first and people second. People carry all sorts of things onto buses as these photos will show. Some of them (the objects, not the people) are pretty zany. For instance, there's the man who climbed aboard with a brace of pheasants. How about the window cleaner who brought along his ladder and water bucket. It's a good thing that the bus is a double-decker.

A STILTED EXISTENCE—This village of fishermen is built entirely on stilts in the middle of Lake Nokoue, Africa.

A passenger could play those three drums on bus.

Window washer, ladder and bucket wait at bus stop.

Notice To Chain Store Managers.

We independent grocers didn't give you our customers to keep. We only lent them till we felt we could take better care of them than you. Now we feel we can, so we are going to take them back a few at a time giving priority to those who would prefer to keep more of their hard earned money at home.

Questions—Answers

Q—Does the water spider spin its web under water?
A—Yes, it spins a web like a balloon with the entrance at the bottom. This spider collects air bubbles on the hairs of its body and carries them down to inflate its nest.
Q—Are former members of Congress allowed to register with the government as lobbyists?
A—Yes.
